What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that websites place on your device when you visit them. Similar technologies, such as scripts and local storage, work in a comparable way. In this policy, "cookies" covers all of them. They help a website work, remember your choices, and provide features you ask for.

How we use cookies

Our website (www.hut22.co.uk) is built on Wix. We keep cookies to a minimum and use them only to run the site and the features on it. When you first visit, a cookie banner asks for your choices. We only set cookies that need your consent if you agree to them.

The table below lists the components on our site that use cookies, what they do, and whether they need your consent.

Essential cookies

Essential cookies are needed for the website and the features you use to work, for example to load pages, keep the site secure, let you book a session or send us a chat message, and remember your cookie choices. The law does not require consent for these cookies, and they cannot be switched off in our cookie banner without stopping the site from working properly.

Functional cookies

Our forms are provided by a third-party app, Boom Form, which uses functional cookies. We only enable these with your consent. If you decline them, some forms may not load. You can still contact us by email at info@hut22.co.uk.

What we don’t use

- We don’t use Google Analytics or any other analytics tools.

- We don’t use marketing or advertising cookies.
- We don’t track your browsing across other websites.
- We don’t share cookie data with third parties for marketing purposes.

Changing your choices

You can change or withdraw your consent at any time using [the cookie settings link or icon] on our website. You can also block or delete cookies through your browser settings. Blocking essential cookies may stop parts of the site from working.

For general information about cookies and how to manage them, visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

Your personal information

When you complete a form, send a chat message or make a booking, you give us personal information such as your name and email address. Our Privacy Notice explains how we use and protect it, and the rights you have: [link to Privacy Notice].

Changes to this policy

We will update this policy if we change the cookies or features on our website. Any changes will be posted on this page with a new date.
